

Article Overview

Norden is a leading manufacturer of FTTH fiber distribution boxes in Belgium, complemented by several companies producing industrial and corrugated boxes for various applications.

Key Manufacturers

1. Norden Norden specializes in FTTH (fiber-to-the-home) distribution boxes, providing high-quality solutions for fiber optic networks in Belgium. They are recognized for competitive pricing and reliable products, making them a primary choice for telecom and network infrastructure projects . 2. Industrial Box Products This family-owned company produces custom corrugated cardboard products at small, medium, and large scales. They focus on sustainability and recycling, catering to diverse industrial packaging needs . 3. VPK Packaging Group and Corex VPK Group, through its Corex division, manufactures cardboard cores, tubes, and edge protectors, essential for packaging and industrial applications. They have a strong European and Asian presence, emphasizing innovation and sustainability . 4. Corpack NV and Soenen Golfkarton These companies specialize in corrugated boxes, including heavy-duty, UN-approved, and custom designs. They provide tailored solutions for transport and storage, ensuring high-quality protection for various products . 5. Centurybox and Kartonnage Lefevere-Beel (KLB) These manufacturers focus on customized and eco-responsible packaging, offering printed and unprinted boxes in multiple sizes. They emphasize flexibility, quality, and timely delivery for business clients .

Industry Overview

Belgium's distribution box and packaging industry is known for innovation, quality, and environmental responsibility. Companies often combine traditional manufacturing with sustainable practices, serving sectors such as telecommunications, food and beverage, pharmaceuticals, and personal care . Many manufacturers provide both standardized and custom solutions, including fiber optic distribution boxes, corrugated transport boxes, and protective packaging.

Considerations for Sourcing

- o Type of box: Determine whether you need fiber optic distribution boxes or industrial/corrugated boxes.
- o Customization: Many Belgian manufacturers offer tailored sizes, printing, and protective features.
- o Sustainability: Several companies prioritize eco-friendly materials and recycling.
- o Scale: Choose manufacturers capable of handling small to large production volumes depending on your requirements. Belgium offers a robust network of distribution box manufacturers, from specialized FTTH suppliers like Norden to versatile industrial and corrugated box producers, ensuring a wide range of options for businesses and infrastructure projects.
