

Article Overview

High voltage cable trays in Gabon are available in galvanized, metal, and molded types, with prices ranging from approximately GH? 300 to GH? 850 depending on size and material.

Galvanized and Metal Cable Trays

Galvanized cable trays are widely used for industrial and electrical installations due to their durability and corrosion resistance. Prices for standard sizes in Gabon include:

- o 100mm x 50mm trays: GH? 300
 - o 300mm x 50mm trays: GH? 500
 - o 600mm x 50mm trays: GH? 850
- These trays are typically made from stainless steel, aluminum, or galvanized steel, and are suitable for high voltage cable routing in industrial and commercial projects. Bulk orders are often available, and suppliers provide CE-certified products with options for customization .

Molded Cable Trays

Molded cable trays are another option, offering lightweight and non-conductive properties, ideal for environments where electrical insulation is critical. Suppliers in Gabon provide molded trays in bulk to verified buyers, with options for OEM branding, various materials (PE, HDPE, polyester), and customized dimensions .

Suppliers and Manufacturers

Several suppliers and manufacturers serve the Gabonese market:

- o Bahra Electric Cable Trays: Offers standard and customized galvanized trays for industrial use .
- o MAXGO GmbH: Produces energy and industrial cables, including cable trays for high voltage applications .
- o Eurotray and Emit Metal: Provide metal cable trays, ladders, and trunking systems with monthly production capacities suitable for large projects .
- o EASYCONNECT and VALDINOX: Specialize in mesh and wire cable trays with easy installation features .

Ordering and Pricing Considerations

- o Prices vary based on material, size, and quantity.
- o Bulk orders may include discounts and shipping options.
- o Suppliers often require technical specifications, certifications, and lead times for accurate quotations .
- o Delivery terms can include FOB, CIF, or local delivery, depending on the supplier. For precise pricing and
