- o Size and Length: Wider or longer trays require more aluminum, increasing the price. Standard lengths are usually 2-3 meters.
- o Load Capacity: Trays designed for heavy-duty industrial use are priced higher than those for light residential wiring.
- o Accessories: Connectors, brackets, and covers add to the total cost of installation.
- o Supplier and Brand: Prices vary between suppliers and brands, with premium brands offering higher durability and corrosion resistance.

Typical Price Range

- o Small residential trays: Approximately EUR20-EUR40 per meter.
- o Medium commercial trays: Around EUR40-EUR70 per meter.
- o Heavy-duty industrial trays: Can exceed EUR100 per meter, especially for wide or reinforced aluminum trays. For the most accurate pricing, it is recommended to check supplier websites or request a quote, as prices fluctuate based on material costs, availability, and delivery options .

Additional Tips

- o Compare online and in-store prices to find the best deal.
- o Consider bulk purchases, which may reduce the per-meter cost.
- o Ensure the tray meets local electrical standards for safety and durability. By evaluating these factors, you can select the right aluminum cable tray for your project while staying within budget.
