

Article Overview

Sri Lanka offers a wide range of industrial switches and electrical solutions through leading suppliers like KIK Lanka, Siegman Electric, and Kevilton Electrical Products.

Key Suppliers and Distributors

KIK Lanka (Pvt) Ltd is one of the largest importers and distributors of electrical switchgear and control equipment in Sri Lanka. They provide a complete range of industrial switches including ACBs, MCCBs, RCCBs, MCBs, contactors, overloads, timers, and industrial automation products. KIK partners with global brands such as ABB, EPCOS, DELAB, LOVATO, and Fuji Dharma, ensuring high-quality and reliable products. They also supply bus bar trunking and cable management systems, serving major projects including the Ceylon Electricity Board .

Siegman Electric (Pvt) Ltd specializes in industrial electrical solutions, offering power distribution, motor control, and automation systems for heavy-duty machinery such as grinding mills and stone crusher plants. Their industrial switches and control panels are designed for durability, safety, and energy efficiency, supporting continuous operations in demanding industrial environments .

Kevilton Electrical Products (Pvt) Ltd is part of the Capital Maharaja Organisation and provides innovative electrical solutions for industrial applications. While their focus spans multiple electrical products, they are recognized for supplying reliable industrial switches and related equipment .

Exporters and Trade Resources

The Sri Lanka Export Development Board maintains a directory of local exporters and manufacturers of switches, providing a comprehensive database for sourcing industrial switches for both domestic and international buyers. This directory is useful for identifying certified suppliers and exploring trade opportunities .

Additional Suppliers

Aklan offers industrial sockets and electrical products with fast delivery options, catering to professionals and industrial clients in Sri Lanka .
